

Why Boast in Evil, Mighty Man?

From Psalm 52

1. <sup>1</sup>Why boast in e - vil, might - y man? God's good - ness is for - ev - er.
 2. <sup>5</sup>So God shall beat you ev - er down, Lay hold and send you sprawl - ing;
 3. <sup>8</sup>But I am like an ol - ive tree, God's house pro - vides me cov - er;

<sup>3</sup>2 Your tongue in - vents an e - vil plan, Like ra - zors schem - ing clev - er.
 He'll root you from the liv - ing ground, He'll pluck you from your dwell - ing.
 His mer - cy here shall res - cue me. <sup>9</sup>I praise Your good - ness ev - er.

<sup>5</sup>
<sup>3</sup>You cher - ish e - vil more than good, And lies to <sup>6</sup>The right - eous man shall see and laugh, <sup>7</sup>"Be - hold the
 Be - cause of all that You have done, I'll gath - er say - ing things you should. <sup>4</sup>Your words de - stroy, you li - ar.

 god - less ep - i - taph: He trust - ed his re - bell - ing."
 with Your ho - ly ones; A - wait - ing You for - ev - er.